THAN NEVER

His ears look pinned back

1992

1995

When Brad was starting out in Hollywood, he was the perfect specimen of a man, except for one quirk — his ears stuck out! Fast-forward 15 years, and one doctor says he thinks it's obvious Brad has had an otoplasty, or an ear-pinning. "They are less prominent," says Dr. Renato Calabria, who does not treat Brad. "It could be consistent with an otoplasty."

Maddox wore this shirt
Their 5-year-old son wore this striped top in Mumbai, India, in November.

Then Pax wore it!
The 3-year-old sported the same one on a trip to the doctor in NYC on June 14.

THEIR KIDS WEAR HAND-ME-DOWNS

They're multimillionaires, but Brad and Angelina don't spoil their children!

Maddox had this T-shirt first
Mom Angelina Jolie took him and Zahara out for a stroll in New Orleans in August.

Then Zahara got it!
On June 22, Zahara, who's now 2, fit into her big brother's clothes!
